

Sean Catangui

Product and Experience Design

(605) 254-3169
seancaat@gmail.com

Portfolio: catangui.com

Education

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill | B.A., Mathematics
Class of 2017

- Significant coursework in Journalism, Media Design, and Creative Writing

Skills

- UX/UI design, information architecture, human-centered design
- Sketching, wireframing, journey mapping, prototyping
- Illustrator, Photoshop, Adobe XD, Sketch, Unity (VR)
- HTML/CSS, Javascript, Python, Java
- Tachyons, SVG, Two.js, D3.js, Bootstrap, React
- Data analysis (Excel, Python)

Experience

UNC Visual Language Lab | UI/UX Designer, Lead Developer
August 2016 - December 2016

- Designed and built a brand activation microsite for GE Hitachi.
- Collaborated with graphic designers to establish a visual language within GE brand guidelines.
- Led design team and coordinated efforts with writers, photographers, and videographers.

JP Morgan Chase & Co. | Software Development Intern
Summer 2015 & Summer 2016

- Designed Log Analytics data visualization dashboard and on-boarding interface.
- Developed Log Analytics platform prototype for the aggregation and analysis of application data.
- Compiled research data and designed presentation for a firm-wide app hosting migration pitch.
- Evaluated and implemented a distributed data caching solution that will serve as backbone for the firm's equities and trading services.

UNC Department of Mathematics | Researcher
April 2016 - May 2017

- Conducted urban design and real estate research on gentrification to construct mathematical model.
- Designed client-facing user interface for altering maps and running simulations.

PaperPerfect | Founder
October 2015 - Present

- Founded and operated an editing and tutoring service for non-native English speakers.
- Designed marketing materials and developed website.